- (2) Such fees shall be used by the Commission to defray its expenses.

Loans and financial penalties

14. (1) For the performance of its functions or the discharge of its duties under this Act, or under any other enactment the Commission may from time to time, raise loans from the Government.
- (2) All financial penalties collected under this Act shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund.

Financial year and annual estimates

15. (1) The financial year of the Commission shall begin on [ ] of each year and end on [ ] of the succeeding year except that the first financial year of the Commission shall begin on the appointed day and end on the [ ] of the succeeding year.
- (2) The Commission shall in every financial year, prepare or cause to be prepared and shall adopt annual estimates of its income and expenditure for the ensuing year.
- (3) The Commission may adopt supplementary estimates at any of its meeting.
- (4) Upon adoption by the Commission, a copy of all annual estimates shall forthwith be sent to the Minister.
- (5) The Minister may approve or disallow any item in the estimates submitted to him by the Commission, and the Commission shall be bound by the decision of the Minister.

Accounts and audit

16. (1) The accounts of the Commission shall be audited annually by the [Auditor General] or by any auditor approved by the [Auditor General] for that purpose.
- (2) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the close of each financial year prepare and submit financial statements in respect of that year to the auditor who shall audit and report on them.

- (3) The auditor or any person authorised by him shall be entitled at all reasonable times to unhindered access to all accounting and other records relating directly or indirectly to all financial transactions of the Commission.
- (4) Any person who, without reasonable excuse refuses or fails, to allow the auditor or any person authorised by the auditor access to any accounting or other records in his custody or power shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding [ ].
- (5) The auditor shall in his report state whether-
  - (a) the financial statements fairly state the affairs of the Commission and reflect the financial transactions undertaken by it;
  - (b) proper accounting and other records, have been kept, including records of all assets and liabilities of the Commission; and
  - (c) such other matters arising from the audit as he considers necessary.
- (6) The Commission shall, as soon as its accounts and financial statements have been audited, send a copy of the audited financial statements together with the report of the auditor to the Minister.

Annual report

- 17. (1) The Commission shall, within [three] months after the end of each financial year, or within such longer period as the Minister may in special circumstances allow, cause to be made and submitted to the Minister, an annual report dealing generally with the activities of the Commission during the preceding financial year and containing information relating to the proceedings and policy of the Commission.
- (2) There shall be included in the annual report, the audited financial statements of the Commission and the report of the auditor.

- (3) The Minister shall as soon as practicable cause a copy of the annual report submitted under subsection (1) to be presented to Parliament.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Commission may from time to time furnish to the Minister, a report relating to any particular matter investigated or the subject of an investigation, being a matter which in its opinion, require the special attention of the Minister.

PART IV – ANTI-COMPETITIVE AGREEMENTS AND ABUSE OF DOMINANT POSITION

Anti- competitive agreements

- 18. (1) Any agreement between enterprises, decision by associations of enterprises or concerted practice which has as its object or effect the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition in [ ] is prohibited.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), agreements, decisions and concerted practices may in particular have the object or effect of preventing, restricting or distorting competition, if they contain provisions which-
- (a) directly or indirectly fix purchase or selling prices or determine any other business activity;
  - (b) limit or control production, markets, technical development or investment;
  - (c) share markets or sources of supply;
  - (d) constitute a bid-rigging agreement;

- (e) apply dissimilar conditions to equivalent transactions with trading parties, thereby placing the trading parties at a competitive disadvantage; or
  - (f) make the conclusion of contracts subject to acceptance by the other parties of supplementary obligations which, by their nature or according to commercial usage, have no connection with the said contracts.
- (3) An agreement, decision or concerted practice under subsection (1) shall not be prohibited -
- a) If it falls within an agreement, decision or concerted practice or a category of agreements, decisions or concerted practices, for which an authorisation has been duly granted by the Commission under Part VI; or
  - b) If in the opinion of the Commission it-
    - i) contributes to the improvement of production or distribution of goods or services or the promotion of technical or economic progress, while allowing consumers a fair share of the resulting benefit; and
    - ii) imposes on the enterprises concerned only such restrictions as are indispensable to the attainment of objectives mentioned in subparagraph (i); and
    - iii) does not afford such enterprises the possibility of eliminating competition in respect of a substantial part of the goods or services concerned.
- (4) Any provision of any agreement or any decision which is prohibited by subsection (1) shall be void to the extent that it infringes that subsection.

- (5) Unless the context otherwise requires, a provision of this Act which is expressed to apply to, or in relation to an agreement shall be read with the necessary modifications, as applying equally to, or in relation to, a decision by an association of enterprises or a concerted practice.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, a bid-rigging agreement having as object or effect the prevention, restriction or distortion of competition, exists between two or more enterprises where-
  - (a) one of the parties to the agreement agrees not to submit a bid or tender in response to a call or request for bids or tenders; or
  - (b) the parties to the agreement agree on the price, terms and conditions of the bid or tender to be submitted in response to a call or request for bids or tenders.
- (7) Subsection (6) does not apply where-
  - (a) the enterprises to an agreement are inter-connected bodies corporate; or
  - (b) the person making the call or requests for bids or tenders is made aware of the terms of the agreement before the making of a bid or tender by a party to the agreement.
- (8) For the purposes of this section any two bodies corporate are to be treated as inter-connected if one of them is a subsidiary of the other or if both of them are subsidiaries of the same body corporate.

Dominant Position

19. An enterprise holds a dominant position in a relevant market if, by itself or together with one or more enterprises, it is in a position to exclude competition, control prices or to behave to an appreciable extent independently of its competitors, potential competitors, customers or suppliers.

Identification of relevant market

20. For the purpose of identifying the relevant market under this Part, the Commission shall take into account, inter- alia-

- a) the geographical boundaries that have been applied to identify groups of sellers and buyers of goods or services within which competition is likely to be restrained;
- b) all goods or services which are regarded as interchangeable or substitutable by the consumer, by reason of the characteristics of the goods or services, the prices and the intended use; and
- c) all suppliers to which consumers may turn to in the short term, if the abuse of dominance leads to a significant increase in price or to other detrimental effects upon the consumer.

Abuse of dominant position

21. (1) Any conduct on the part of one or more enterprises which amounts to the abuse of a dominant position in a relevant market is prohibited.

(2) A dominant enterprise abuses its position if it acts in a manner that impedes the maintenance or development of effective competition in a relevant market.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (2), the following acts may in particular amount to an abuse of dominant position -

- a) restricting any other enterprise from entering the market;
- b) preventing or deterring any other enterprise from engaging in competitive conduct in a market;
- c) eliminating or removing an enterprise from a market;
- d) directly or indirectly imposing unfair purchase or selling prices or other unfair trading conditions ;
- e) limiting production, supply of goods or services, markets or technical development to the prejudice of consumers;
- f) applying dissimilar conditions to equivalent transactions with trading parties, thereby placing the trading parties at a competitive disadvantage;
- g) engaging in exclusive dealing, market restriction or tying; or
- h) generally making the conclusion of agreements subject to acceptable by other parties or supplementary obligations which by their nature, or according to commercial usage, have no connection with the subject of such agreements.

(4) For the purposes of this Part –

- a) “exclusive dealing” includes any practice whereby a supplier of goods or services –
  - (i) as a condition of supplying the goods or services to a consumer requires the consumer to –

- a) deal only or primarily in goods or services supplied by or designated by the supplier or his nominee;
  - b) refrain from dealing in a specified class or kind of goods or services except for the goods or services supplied by the supplier or his nominee;
- (ii) induces a consumer to meet a condition referred to in paragraph (a) by offering to supply the goods or services to the consumer on more favourable terms or conditions, if the consumer agrees to meet that condition;
- b) “market restriction” means any practice whereby a supplier of goods or services, as a condition of supplying those goods or services to the consumer, requires the consumer to supply the goods or services only in a defined market or exacts a penalty of any kind from the consumer if the consumer supplies any goods or services outside that market;
- c) “tying” means any practice whereby a supplier of goods or services –
- i) as a condition of supplying the goods or services (hereinafter referred to as tying) to a consumer, requires the consumer to –
    - A) acquire any other goods or services from the supplier or his nominee; or
    - B) refrain from using or distributing, in conjunction with the tying, any other goods or services that are not of a brand or manufacture designated by the supplier or their nominee; and

- ii) induces a customer to meet a condition set out in paragraph (i) by offering to supply the goods or services to the consumer on more favourable terms or conditions if the consumer agrees to meet that condition.
- (5) Any conduct of a dominant enterprise shall not be prohibited if -
- a) it is the subject of an authorisation granted by the Commission under Part VI; or
  - b) it contributes to the improvement of production or distribution of goods or services or the promotion of technical or economic progress, while allowing consumers a fair share of the resulting benefit.

PART V - MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS

Mergers prohibited

- 22. (1) Any merger that has resulted, or is likely to result, in a substantial lessening of competition within any market in [name of state] for goods or services is prohibited.
- (2) A merger occurs when one or more enterprises directly or indirectly acquire or establish direct or indirect control over the whole or part of the business activities of another enterprise.
- (3) A merger may be achieved in any manner, including through-
- a) purchasing, leasing or otherwise acquiring the shares, an interest or the assets of the other enterprise in question; or

- b) effecting an amalgamation or other combination with the other enterprise in question.

Substantial lessening of competition

- 23. (1) The Commission may, when deciding whether a merger is likely to result in a substantial lessening of competition, with regard to goods or services take into account any of the following considerations -
- a) the actual and potential level of import competition in the market;
  - b) the ease of entry into the market, including tariff and regulatory barriers;
  - c) whether the merger will result in the removal of an effective competitor;
  - d) whether the business or part of the business of a party to the merger or proposed merger has failed or is likely to fail; and
  - e) whether the merger can or cannot be justified on any exceptional and compelling reason of public policy.

PART VI – AUTHORISATIONS AND EXEMPTIONS

Grant of authorisation

- 24. (1) Any enterprise which proposes to become a party to an agreement, a conduct, or a merger prohibited under sections 18, 21 and 22 may apply to the Commission for an authorization to become a party to the agreement, conduct or merger.
- (2) In determining an application under subsection(1), the Commission shall consult the Minister and take into account the following-

- a) the vulnerability of the sector concerned;
- b) the effect of the agreement, conduct or merger on the ability of small and medium sized enterprises to compete effectively;
- c) the promotion of the establishment and development of domestic industries;
- d) the promotion of economic development of other sectors of the economy; or
- e) any other exceptional and compelling reasons of public policy.

(3) The Commission may grant an authorisation for a specified term and impose such terms and conditions as it deems fit.

(4) The Commission may refuse to grant an authorisation and shall inform the applicant in writing of the reasons for the refusal.

Effect of authorisation

25. While an authorisation under section 24 is in force, nothing in this Act shall prevent the enterprise to whom such authorisation is granted from giving effect to any agreement or engaging in any conduct or merger to which the authorisation relates.

Revocation of authorisation

26. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission may revoke or amend an authorization granted under section 24 if it is satisfied that-

- (a) the authorisation was granted on information that was false or misleading;
- (b) there has been a breach of any terms or conditions subject to which the authorisation was granted ; or
- (c) there has been a material change of circumstance since the grant of the authorization.

- (2) Before revoking or amending the authorisation, the Commission shall notify the enterprise in writing and specifying the reasons for the proposed revocation or amendment and give the enterprise an opportunity to make representations to the Commission within [ ] days from the date of the notification.

Register of authorisations

27. (1) The Commission shall keep, in such form as it may determine, a register of authorisations granted under this Part.
- (2) The register shall be kept at the office of the Commission and be available upon payment of the prescribed fee for inspection by members of the public at all reasonable times.

Block Exemptions

28. The Commission may by [order] published in the gazette, exempt any particular category of agreements, decisions and concerted practices from the prohibitions referred to in section 18.

PART VII- CONSUMER PROTECTION

Unfair Practice

29. (1) Any unfair practice on the part of an enterprise is prohibited.
- (2) An unfair practice occurs when in relation to a consumer transaction, an enterprise-
- (a) does or says anything, or omits to do or say anything, as a result of which a consumer may reasonably be deceived or misled;
  - (b) makes a false claim;
  - (c) takes advantage of a consumer where it knows or ought reasonably to know that the consumer –

- (i) is not in a position to protect his own interest; or
  - (ii) is not reasonably able to understand the character, nature, language or effect of the transactions; or
  - (d) without limiting the generality of paragraphs (a) to (c) does anything specified in the Third Schedule.
- (3) An unfair practice referred to in subsection (2), may occur before, during or after a consumer transaction, or may consist of a single act or omission.

Consumer transaction

- 30. For the purposes of this Part, consumer transaction means-
- (a) the supply of goods or services by an enterprise to a consumer as a result of a purchase, lease, gift, contest or other arrangement; or
  - (b) an agreement between an enterprise and a consumer, as a result of a purchase, lease, gift, contest or other arrangement in which the enterprise is to supply goods or services to another consumer specified in the agreement, but does not include any transaction specified in the Fourth Schedule.

PART VIII- INVESTIGATION AND HEARING

Complaints and requests

- 31. (1) Where, following a complaint or a request made to the Commission by any person, or at the Commission's own initiative, the Commission has reasonable grounds to believe that an enterprise has engaged or is engaging in one or more of the prohibited activities under Parts IV, V and VII of this Act, the Commission may conduct an investigation.
- (2) For the purposes of an investigation under subsection (1), the Commission may appoint its

Executive Director or such other employees as it considers appropriate, to be an investigating officer and may appoint or employ any other person to assist the investigating officer;

- (3) The Commission may, where it decides to conduct an investigation, by notice in writing to any person require that person to -
  - a) produce to the Commission a specified document or provide it with a specified information, relevant to the investigation within such time as may be stated in the notice; and
  - b) attend at a specified place and time, to answer questions of the investigating officer and provide him with information or produce any document he may have in his possession or custody in relation to the investigation.
- (4) The Commission may specify in the notice served pursuant to subsection 3(a), the time and place any document is to be produced or any information is to be provided and the manner and form in which it is to be produced or provided.
- (5) The power under this section to require a person to produce a document includes the power to take copies or extracts from any document produced .
- (6) Where an investigation reveals an alleged infringement of any one or more of the prohibited activities under this Act, the Commission shall inform the enterprise in writing of the alleged infringement and invite the enterprise to make representations in connection with the alleged infringement.
- (7) The Commission shall, where the enterprise admits the alleged infringement, give such directions as it considers appropriate to remedy the infringement and may impose a financial penalty.

- (8) Where the enterprise denies the alleged infringement or makes representations which the Commission considers to be unsatisfactory, the Commission shall convene a hearing and inform the parties accordingly.
- (9) The Commission may conduct further investigations for the purposes of the hearing.
- (10) Upon conclusion of the hearing, the Commission shall, where it finds -
  - (a) that there was an infringement of a prohibited activity, issue such direction and may impose such financial penalty as it considers appropriate; or
  - (b) that no infringement of a prohibited activity has taken place, inform the parties forthwith.
- (11) The Commission shall before issuing a direction or imposing a financial penalty, give an opportunity to the party affected by the findings of the Commission, to make representations in mitigation .

Investigation discontinued

- 32. (1) At any stage of an investigation or a hearing under this Act, if the Commission is of the opinion that the matter being investigated or subject of a hearing does not justify further investigation or hearing, the Commission may discontinue the investigation or hearing.
- (2) Where the Commission decides to discontinue an investigation or a hearing under subsection (1) , it shall inform the parties forthwith of its decision.

Interim measures

- 33. (1) Where, in the course of an investigation-
  - (a) the Commission has reasonable grounds to suspect that an enterprise is a party to one or more of the prohibited activities under this Act; and

(b) considers that as a consequence it is necessary for it to take an interim measure as a matter of urgency for the purpose of -

- (i) preventing serious and irreparable damage to a particular person or category of persons;
- (ii) protecting public interest; or
- (iii) preventing a person from taking any step that would hinder or impede the investigation of the Commission, the Commission may give such directions to any person as it considers appropriate for that purpose.

(2) A direction given under this section shall be in writing.

(3) The Commission shall give the person to whom it intends to give a direction an opportunity to make representations to the Commission before issuing the direction .

Examination of witnesses

34. The Commission, may for the purposes of a hearing, do all or any of the following -

- a) summon witnesses to appear before it ;
- b) administer oath and examine the witnesses;
- c) require any such witness to produce to the Commission any document or to furnish any information in his power, control or custody.

Immunity and privileges

35. A witness before the Commission shall be entitled to the same immunity and privileges applicable to a witness before a court of law.

Witness refusing to comply

36. (1) Any person who -

- a) on being duly summoned to attend as a witness, fails to attend without reasonable excuse;
- b) being in attendance as a witness refuses to take an oath or to furnish any information or produce any document in his control or possession or to answer any question;
- c) destroys any document or other record likely to be required for an investigation that has commenced under this Act;
- d) prevents or impedes the investigation;
- e) without reasonable excuse fails, to comply with a notice served under section 31 (3);
- f) knowingly provides the Commission with information that is false or misleading; or
- g) does any other thing which would constitute contempt before a court of law, shall commit an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding [ ] and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding [ ].

(2) It shall be a reasonable excuse, for the purposes of subsection (1)(e) for a person to refuse or to fail to answer a question put to him or refuse or fail to produce a document that he was requested to produce, if the answer to the question or the production of the document might tend to incriminate him.

Procedures for
